

Jessie's Fund Grants to Individuals – Terms and Conditions

Jessie's Fund awards grants to individuals subject to the following terms and conditions:

- a) The grantee is responsible for finding an appropriate music therapist to deliver the agreed sessions and communicating to them the outcome of the application.
- b) The grantee confirms that the grant will be used only for the purpose specified in their application (music therapy sessions for the name child/young person).
- c) Jessie's Fund will pay the grant awarded directly to the music therapist/music therapy organisation for the sessions agreed for an individual child/young person based on the costs given in the application form. The therapist/organisation is responsible for invoicing Jessie's Fund for these sessions.
- d) The therapist/organisation can invoice Jessie's Fund at the start, during or end of the sessions. They can invoice for the full amount or for a number of sessions in a set time, e.g. monthly invoicing of sessions.
- e) Jessie's Fund takes no responsibility for the cancellation or rearranging of sessions.
- f) Grants awarded must be claimed within a year of agreeing the grant. If an extension is needed this must be discussed and agreed with Jessie's Fund within the above timescale.
- g) If the parents of the individual child/young person have agreed to make a specified parental contribution, they must arrange to pay this directly with the music therapist. Jessie's Fund is not responsible for these payments if they are not paid.
- h) The therapist/organisation will return to Jessie's Fund any funding for prepaid sessions which then do not take place.
- i) A short report is sent to Jessie's Fund detailing the impact of the grant awarded.
- j) Jessie's Fund reserves the right to request repayment of the grant if the above conditions are not met.
- k) By accepting an Individual Grant on behalf of a child/young person from Jessie's Fund you are agreeing to the above terms and conditions.
